SUICIDE ON SHIPBOARD.

A Steward Hangs Himself. For several days past Alfred Izzard, steward on board the steamship City of Montreal, lying at pier 45 North River, has been drinking to great excess, and, having an attack of delirium tremens, was and, having an attack of delirium tremens, was yesterday morning secured in the engineer's bathroom till he should feel better. Subsequently one of the hands went to look. after Izzard, and found him sitting on the edge of the bathtub. He had fastened a towel about his neck and also secured it to a hook above his head, and leaning forward tightened the towel around his neck, thus producing strangulation. Izzard was not quite dead when discovered; but a doctor, who-was called, could not restore him, and death speedily ensued. Coroner Herrman was nottifed to hold an inquest over the remains, which the steamship company will see decently interred. Mr. Izzard was twenty-four years of age and a native of England, where he has left a jamily.

SUICIDE IN BLOOMINGDALE ASYLUM.

Testerday morning Coroner Herrman held an inquest, in the Bioomingdale Asylum, over the remains of Mrs. Mary Ann Raynor, a lady, sixty years of age, who committed suicide by hanging herself. Deceased was admitted to the asylum in January, two years ago, and was suffering from melancnolla and nallucination, but appeared to be perfectly harmless. On Friday last her son informed her of a death in the family from smallpox, which increased her despondency. On Monday morning Mrs. Raynor was found hanging to the window bar of her room by means of a sneet. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the foregoing facts. Testerday morning Coroner Herrman held an in-

SUICIDE IN THE WARD'S ISLAND ASYLUM.

Coroner Young held an inquest in the Emigrants' nsane Asylum, Ward's Island, on the body of Edwin Bond, an Englishman, who committed suicide by thrusting his head through a pane of glass, the pieces of which gut his throat in such a manner that death resulted from hemorrhage, the juguiar vein and carotid artery having been severed. Efforts were instantly made to remove the pieces of glass from the wound and quench the flow of blood, but he stoutly resisted, and nothing whatever could be done to save his life. Bond had been but a few days in the asylum, and in the country less than six months.

STREET CLEANING.

The Superintendent of the Street Cleaning Bu reau reported yesterday to the Board of Police that no street dirt, except on one occasion, had ever been thrown into the river. At the time mentioned an accident caused the dumping of the dirt into the water. A copy of the Superintendent's report was sent to the Board of Pilot Commissioners by the Secretary, under orders from the Board of Police.
